

Service Review 90 days –

The lead Field Office for the species being petitioned reviews the petition and determines whether the petition presents “substantial information” to indicate that the petitioned action(s) may be warranted. The Service has 90 days (to the extent practicable) to make a preliminary finding (90-day finding) which is published in the Federal Register.

Back to Petition Process