

Substantial Information –

That amount of information that would lead a reasonable person to believe the action requested may be warranted. The petitioned action may be warranted, a status review is conducted and a public comment period is opened.

Back to Petition Process