FISH & WILDLIFE SERVICE

1979

Produced by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service
Wetland classifications from 1:117 000-scale color infrared aerial photographs taken, 1973, 1:119 000-scale black and white aerial photographs taken, 1972, 1:126 000-scale black and white aerial photographs taken, 1973, and other source data

SPECIAL NOTE
This document was prepared primarily by stereoscopic analysis of high altitude aerial photographs. Wetlands were identified on the photographs based on vegetation, visible hydrology, and geography in accordance with Classification of Wetlands and Deep Water Habitats of the United States (An Operational Draft) (Cowardin, et al., 1977). These photographs typically reflect conditions during the growing season of a specific year. Wetlands that appear only during wetter periods may be missed on the photographs. Thus, a detailed on the ground and historical analysis of a single site may result in a revision of the wetland boundaries established through photographic interpretation. In addition, some small wetlands and those obscured by dense forest cover may not be included on the maps.
Federal, State and local regulatory agencies with jurisdiction over wetlands may define and describe wetlands in a different manner than that used in this inventory. There is no intent, in either the design or products of this inventory, to define the limits of proprietary jurisdiction of any Federal, State or local government or to establish the geographical scope of the regulatory programs of government agencies. Persons should not make any assumptions regarding the presence or absence of wetlands for purposes of compliance with any of appropriate Federal, State or local agencies concerning specific agency regulatory programs and proprietary jurisdictions that may effect such activities.
