Application Period Opens for Cameron Prairie and Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge Lottery Waterfowl Hunts

The Southwest Louisiana National Wildlife Refuge Complex has five different Lottery Drawn Waterfowl Hunt opportunities on Cameron Prairie and Lacassine refuges. The application period for all lottery waterfowl hunts is September 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010. All applications will be mailed or delivered to the Complex Headquarters at Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuge. Below is a description of each hunt, which hunters are eligible to apply, and how to apply.

The Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuge Youth Lottery Waterfowl Hunt is open to hunters 10–17 years of age. The youth hunts, with five blinds, are scheduled on Saturdays and selected school holidays within the western zone Louisiana waterfowl hunting season. The 14 available hunt dates for the 2010-2011 Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuge youth hunt are November 6* (*Youth only hunt on youth waterfowl day. Adults must supervise youth, but adults cannot hunt on this day). November 13, 20, 24, 27 and (2010), December 4, 18, 22, 25 and 29 (2010), and January 1, 8, 15, and 22 (2011) youth and adult supervisor can hunt on these dates in compliance with state law. Youth hunters must harvest their own limit.

The Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge Youth Lottery Waterfowl Hunt is open to hunters 10–17 years of age. The youth hunts, with five blinds, are scheduled on Saturdays and selected school holidays within the western zone Louisiana waterfowl hunting season. The 14 available hunt dates for the 2010-2011

Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge youth hunt are November 6* (*Youth only hunt on youth waterfowl day. Adults must supervise youth, but adults cannot hunt on this day). November 13, 20, 24, 27 and (2010), December 4, 18, 22, 25 and 29 (2010), and January 1, 8, 15, and 22 (2011) youth and adult supervisor can hunt on these dates in compliance with state law. Youth hunters must harvest their own limit.

For both the Cameron Prairie and Lacassine Youth Hunts, youth hunter applicants and their youth guest must be 10-17 years of age by October 15, 2010. One adult will supervise no more than two youth hunters. Youth hunters and supervisors born after September 1, 1969, are required to possess a Louisiana Hunter Safety Certification card or equivalent from another state prior to application. If the course has been taken, but the card has not been received, youth hunters will be required to carry a copy of their course completion certificate while hunting. Three hunters (an adult 21 years of age or older, youth applicant and youth guest) are allowed in each of the pit blinds. Decoys are provided.

The Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge Senior Lottery Waterfowl Hunt is open to seniors age 55 and older by October 15, 2010. Senior hunts, with 5 blinds, are scheduled on most Wednesdays during the western zone Louisiana waterfowl hunting season. The five available dates for the 2010-2011 Lacassine Senior Lottery Waterfowl Hunt are November 17 and December 1 (2010) and January 5, 12 and 19 (2011). Chosen senior hunters are permitted to bring two guests of any age. Blinds and decoys are provided.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is the principal federal agency responsible for conserving, protecting, and enhancing fish, wildlife, and plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. The Service manages the 95-million-acre National Wildlife Refuge System that encompasses more than 540 national wildlife refuges, thousands of small wetlands, and other special management areas. It also operates 70 national fish hatcheries, 64 fishery resource offices and 78 ecological services field stations. The agency enforces federal wildlife laws, administers the Endangered Species Act, manages migratory bird populations, restores nationally significant fisheries, conserves and restores wildlife habitat such as wetlands, and helps foreign governments with their conservation efforts. The agency also oversees the Federal Aid program that distributes hundreds of millions of dollars in excise taxes on fishing and hunting equipment to state fish and wildlife agencies.
