

Let's Go Outside!

A PLT/WILD workshop for K-3 educators

Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge
Sherwood

October 28th, 2009 8:30am-4:30pm

Attention K-3rd grade educators-

- Engage in activities and practices that get early learners moving and outside with purpose.
- Explore techniques to bridge inside learning with outside learning through the new science standards.
- Acquire the tools needed to bring students on a follow-up field trip to the Refuge 19255 SW Pacific Hwy Sherwood, OR 97140. To learn more about the Refuge, visit: www.fws.gov/tualatinriver/.
- Participate in English Language Learner Strategies throughout the workshop.

Participating educators will receive 8 PDU's, Project Learning Tree Activity Guide, Early Learner WILD Guide (ID), classroom resources and if needed, substitute reimbursement. To Register: visit Oregon Natural Resources Education Program website: <http://www.cof.orst.edu/cof/extended/onrep/> or call (800)554-6987.
