

Do you have a little one who enjoys being outdoors?

Wondering what you can do to get outside during the rainy season?

Bring your littlest naturalist(s) to the Refuge to spend part of the day stomping in puddles and learning to appreciate the wet weather that makes Oregon so green!

Come join us at the Tualatin River Refuge

Tuesdays & Wednesdays

January 10th & 25th

February 7th & 22nd

March 6th & 21st

10 - 11:30am

Be prepared to get wet and wild.

Please register your group with Gardiner Platt

(503)625-5944 or Gardiner_Platt@fws.gov.

This program is free to the public. Limited spaces available.

