

Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge Free K-8 Teacher Workshop

When: Saturday October 3, 2009

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Location: Tualatin River NWR in Sherwood

The Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge in Sherwood offers an Environmental Education program which enables students to learn the value of our ecosystems, and extends the learning process beyond conventional classroom limits, thus allowing students to make connections with their natural environment. The workshop provides teachers with the tools they need to bring students out for teacher-led field trips. Parent Volunteers are welcome to join the workshop too.

What will be provided:

- Handouts and CD with the Tualatin River NWR Educator's EE curriculum guide book
- PDU certificate
- Walking tour of Refuge with insight into Refuge activities to teach on field trips
- 10% discount on workshop day at Refuge's Nature's Overlook store
- Answers

What to bring:

- Pen or pencil
- Dress comfortably for the weather
- Binoculars
- School Calendars (to schedule a field trip day)
- Questions

Space is limited to 30 participants. To sign-up please RSVP with name, email and phone number to the contact information below, by September 25, 2009. You'll be sent a confirmation email or phone call upon RSVPing and a reminder email one week before the workshop.

Preview the Refuge's curriculum by visiting <http://www.fws.gov/tualatinriver/>

Only teachers participating in the workshop will be able to schedule their class for a field trip to the Refuge. Also visit Friends of the Refuge's website for more information on future events

<http://www.friendsoftualatinrefuge.org/>

Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge
19255 SW Pacific Hwy, Sherwood, OR 97140
Wildlife Center Coordinator- Sarah Dunham
503-625-5944 Sarah_Dunham@fws.gov