

February 2008 Free Teacher Workshop

When: Saturday February 23, 2008

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Location: Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge

The Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge in Sherwood offers an Environmental Education program which enables students to learn the value of our ecosystems, and extends the learning process beyond conventional classroom limits, thus allowing students to make connections with their natural environment. The workshop provides teachers with the tools they need to bring students out for teacher-led field trips.

What will be provided:

- CD with the Educator's EE curriculum guide book to Tualatin River NWR (paper version may be purchased on the day of the workshop)
- Handouts of Refuge map, reservation form, fact sheets and more
- PDU certificate
- Walking tour of Refuge
- Snacks
- Fun, hands-on learning for teachers!
- Answers

What to bring:

- Sack lunch
- Pen or pencil
- Dress comfortably for the weather
- Binoculars
- School Calendars (to schedule a spring field trip day)
- Questions

There is limited space available for the workshop.

Please RSVP by February 18, 2008 to the contact information below.

*For a sneak preview of the Refuge's curriculum, visit <http://www.fws.gov/tualatinriver/>
Only teachers participating in the workshop will be able to schedule their class for a field trip to the Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge.*

Thank you for your interest, we look forward to meeting you at Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge!

Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge
19255 SW Pacific Hwy, Sherwood, OR 97140
Environmental Education Specialist - Janice Jenkins
503-625-5944 ext: 230 education@friendsoftualatinrefuge.org