SUBJECT: Wild Berry Fun Day at the Kenai Refuge

Kenai National Wildlife Refuge will host a Wild Berry Family Fun Day on Saturday, August 25, 2012. Enjoy tasty snacks while participating in activities and crafts from 11 am, to 3 pm at the Refuge Environmental Education Center in Soldotna. All activities are free to the public. You might even win a door prize!

Guided berry identification walks will be held throughout the event. Walks cover 1/4 mile and last 30 minutes. Pre-registration for walks is required. To register or if you need alternative formats or services because of a disability, please contact Candace Ward at (907) 260-2807 or by e-mail at candace_ward@fws.gov. Join the Refuge for a “berry” good time at this event!

The mission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is working with others to conserve, protect, and enhance fish, wildlife, plants, and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. We are both a leader and trusted partner in fish and wildlife conservation, known for our scientific excellence, stewardship of lands and natural resources, dedicated professionals, and commitment to public service.
