Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge to Host Quota Deer Hunt October 24 & 25

Folkston, GA..... Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge will be conducting a quota deer hunt on October 24 and 25 at the Suwannee Canal Recreation Area, located 11 miles southwest of Folkston. From 5:30 a.m. until noon, the Swamp Island Drive, Canal Diggers trail, Upland Discovery trail and the Chesser Island Homestead will be closed to general public visitation for this hunt to ensure the safety of non-hunting visitors and will re-open at noon both days.

A total of 40 permits will be awarded for this hunt, 10 of which are reserved for mobility-impaired hunters in wheelchairs. The hunt includes deer (either sex, limit 2 per day) and feral hogs (either sex, no limit). Hunters are required to use shotgun slugs or muzzleloaders only, buckshot is prohibited. A special refuge tag will be provided for harvested deer upon check-out and does not count against the state limit. All hunters must possess a valid Georgia hunting license.

Permits will be issued on a first-come, first-serve basis and are $15 per hunter. Check-in at the Okefenokee Shop Area begins at 5:00 a.m. each day. Follow signs from the intersection of Suwannee Canal Road and Hwy 121/23 to sign-in area. Hunters may line up for check-in no earlier than 4:00 a.m. and vehicles may not be left unattended. Stand-by hunters may be selected on the second day if hunters do not return and/or check-in by 5:30 a.m. Checks, money-orders, or cash will be accepted for the permit fee.

There are many things for non-hunters to see and do while the hunt is in progress. Visitors may view exhibits and an award-winning movie at the Richard S. Bolt Visitor Center, take a guided boat tour or rent canoes and kayaks from Okefenokee Adventures, walk the Cane Pole trail, Phernetton trail, and Longleaf Pine trail. For more information on the hunt or other activities, please call (912) 496-7836.
