National Elk Refuge

Refuge Access Regulations

General Information

Starting Friday, May 1, 2015, at 8:00 am, the Refuge Road on the National Elk Refuge will be open to public travel beyond the county-maintained line. This allows access to the Curtis Canyon and Flat Creek Roads and the adjoining Bridger-Teton National Forest. This area is closed each winter from December 1 through 8:00 am on May 1 to protect wintering wildlife.

Collecting Natural Products

It is illegal to take, collect, retrieve, possess, sell, purchase, or transport any natural product, including shed antlers, from the Refuge. This regulation is strictly enforced.

Possession of natural products, including shed antlers, is restricted to the Refuge's authorized access routes. Any possession of natural products on the Refuge outside an authorized route is prohibited and will result in seizure of the items.

Refuge Access

Refuge access is restricted to open public roads and trails designated as "authorized routes." All other foot, vehicle, bicycle, and horse travel is strictly prohibited. This includes travel between the Refuge and adjacent National Forest lands.

You must be on an authorized route at all times while within the Refuge boundary. All entry and travel on Refuge lands outside authorized routes is prohibited. The Refuge boundary is clearly marked by high-visibility orange posts.

Authorized Routes

Refuge Road and Miller Butte National Forest Access Trail

The Miller Butte National Forest access trail starts on the Refuge Road east of Miller Butte and provides direct access to the Bridger-Teton National Forest, as marked.

Curtis Canyon Road and National Forest Access Trail

From the junction with Flat Creek Road to the boundary of the Bridger-Teton National Forest. This includes the Curtis Canyon National Forest access trail, as marked, that starts at the Forest Service information board.

Flat Creek Road and Dry Hollow National Forest Access Trail

From the Refuge entrance on East Broadway to the boundary of the Bridger-Teton National Forest. This includes the East parking lot and the Dry Hollow National Forest access trail, as marked.

April 30 – May 1 Restrictions

- Overnight parking is allowed on the night of April 30. Parking is allowed on the right shoulder of the Refuge Road beginning at 8:00 am on April 30.
- Vehicles parked on the Refuge Road may not obstruct the flow of traffic or be left unattended.
- Tent camping is not allowed.

Other Year-Round Restrictions

- Stopping on the road in a manner that obstructs the free movement of other vehicles is prohibited.
- Foot travel off the roadway is restricted to the immediate area of the roadway (approximately 15 feet) as signed.
- Camping and night parking are not allowed.
- Campfires and warming fires are not allowed.
- Attempting to or actually disturbing, injuring, destroying, or collecting any plant or animal is prohibited.
- Public intoxication is strictly prohibited.
- Possession and discharge of fireworks is prohibited.
- Animals are restricted to the Refuge Road and approved routes. All animals, including dogs and horses, must be restrained at all times.
- Animal waste must be collected and properly disposed.

- Hay must be certified weed free.
- All food and garbage must be stored inside vehicles or trailers.
- Littering is prohibited.
- Depositing of garbage or human waste is not allowed on the Refuge, other than at provided facilities.
- Administration and service roads are closed to all public access.
