

2016 Nature and Wildlife Photography Contest

Parker River National Wildlife Refuge

Contest Guidelines

The 2016 Parker River National Wildlife Refuge Nature and Wildlife Photography Contest is co-sponsored by the refuge, the Photographic Society of Parker River NWR, and Hunt's Photo. The following guidelines provide all of the information needed to successfully enter the contest:

1. Two categories:
 - a. "Plum Island Nature & Wildlife"
 - i. Images must have been taken within the boundary of Parker River National Wildlife Refuge OR within the boundary of Sandy Point State Reservation (on the southern tip of Plum Island).
 - b. "New England Nature and Wildlife"
 - i. Images must have been taken somewhere in New England – whether at some other national wildlife refuge, state park, vacant lot down the street, or even your own back yard!
2. Two competitive classes:
 - a. Adult
 - b. Youth - anyone under the age of 18 before the submission deadline of February 15th, 2017
3. Photographs will not be further differentiated beyond "category" (see item No. 1, above). In other words, images of landscapes, seascapes, animals, plants, etc. will all be commingled within one of two categories (e.g., "Plum Island..." OR "New England...")
4. Qualifying images will be accepted irrespective of the type of camera that produced them (e.g., DSLR, mirrorless, point and shoot, cell phone)
5. Only matted prints will be accepted (no electronic files), per the following criteria:
 - a. Maximum print size is 8" x 10" (portrait or landscape orientation).
 - b. Each print must have a white matte.
 - c. Matted prints should NOT be wrapped in plastic.
6. An individual may submit up to two prints.
7. There is a $5.00 contest registration fee. The application fee covers one or both submissions. Cash only.
8. No more than 20% of the photograph's frame should be comprised of something that is "non-nature" (e.g., people, domestic animals (e.g., dogs, cats, horses, etc.), and manmade infrastructure).
9. Entries will be accepted through close of business on Wednesday, February 15th, 2017. Prints can be dropped off at the refuge visitor center seven days per week, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. The visitor center is located at 6 Plum Island Turnpike, Newburyport, MA.
10. A panel of judges will carefully review all submitted artwork and determine the contest winners during the refuge's annual Conservation Film Festival (March 3rd – 5th). The judging panel will be comprised of refuge staff and experienced nature and wildlife photographers.
11. Contest winners will be announced during a public presentation on Sunday afternoon, March 5th at the refuge visitor center in Newburyport, MA. Prizes will be provided by Hunt's Photo!
12. Winning entries will be prominently displayed at the refuge visitor center for a full year.
13. Contest submissions must have the following information printed or typed neatly on the BACK SIDE of the print:
(Note: Any entries with the photographer's name on the front of the print or matte will be withdrawn from competition.)
