Charles M. Russell and UL Bend National Wildlife Refuge

2021 Hunting Regulations

Welcome

Extending 125 airline miles up the Missouri River from Fort Peck Dam in north-central Montana, Charles M. Russell National Wildlife Refuge (NWR) surrounds the 245,000-acre Fort Peck Reservoir. It includes native prairies, forested coulees, river bottoms, and badlands so often portrayed in the paintings of the colorful, early-day artist for whom this Refuge is named.

For current information and maps visit the Refuge website:

This is a unit of the National Wildlife Refuge System, a network of lands and waters managed for the benefit of wildlife and people.

General Information

Encompassing approximately 1,100,000 acres in central and northeastern Montana, the Charles M. Russell (CMR) National Wildlife Refuge (NWR) provides a rare opportunity to experience wild lands and wildlife in a natural setting. Many wildlife-oriented recreational opportunities are offered at CMR NWR, including hunting, fishing, wildlife observation, and hiking. UL Bend National Wildlife Refuge (NWR), a "refuge-within-a-refuge" lies within CMR NWR, is an integral part of the CMR NWR Complex. The UL Bend Wilderness comprises almost half of the refuge.

To protect Refuge resources and to safeguard visitors, please observe the following regulations.

Mechanized Vehicles

- Off-road travel is prohibited, including traveling on shorelines and travel to retrieve game.
- Travel on closed roads is illegal.
- To limit erosion and to protect plants and wildlife, all mechanized vehicles (with the exception of snowmobiles) are allowed only on numbered Refuge roads that are designated as open.
- Snowmobiles are prohibited on all Refuge lands and roads. Snowmobiles and mechanized vehicles are allowed on the ice of Fort Peck Reservoir below Soda Creek Bay.
- Vehicles may be driven, using the most direct route, up to 100 yards from an open road to establish and utilize temporary overnight campsites, except in designated wilderness areas.

All-terrain Vehicles

- ATVs include motorcycles, quadracycles, UTVs, etc.
- In order to operate on open Refuge roads, ATV operators must follow all mechanized vehicle regulations.
- ATVs owned by Montana residents must be street legal and must have a license plate, brake lights, and rear-view mirror.
- Operators must possess a proper driver's license.

Non-resident ATV Owners

- Operators must possess a proper driver's license. ATVs must be legally licensed from the state of origin. If you cannot license an ATV in your state, contact Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks to get a temporary permit.

Bicycles

- Bicycling is allowed year-round, on numbered roads, including seasonally closed roads that are numbered. Bicycles are not allowed in UL Bend NWR designated wilderness areas.

Aircraft

- The use of aircraft over Refuge lands to disturb, harass, drive, pursue, rally, or hunt wildlife or to locate wounded animals is prohibited.
- It is illegal to operate unmanned aircraft (drones) on or over Refuge lands.
- Aircraft may not land on Refuge lands. Landing of fixed-winged aircraft is only allowed on the surface of Fort Peck Reservoir in the Landing Area and in Landing Zones that are defined in the Charles M. Russell NWR Guide Map.

Hunting

- Hunting is allowed for bighorn sheep, coyotes, elk, mule deer, antelope, white-tailed deer, waterfowl, migratory birds, mountain lion, turkey, and upland game birds.
- Persons possessing, transporting, or carrying firearms on National Wildlife Refuge System lands must comply with all provisions of State and local law. Possession of a firearm in a federal building is prohibited. Persons may only use (discharge) firearms in accordance with refuge regulations (50 CFR 27.42 and specific refuge regulations in 50 CFR Part 32).
- Youth hunts as described in the Montana Fish, Wildlife, & Parks Regulations are valid on the Refuge.
- Firearms may ONLY be fired in conjunction with a legal hunt for which the hunter is licensed.
- Archery target shooting is allowed during archery season. All other target shooting is prohibited.
- Hunting is subject to Federal and State regulations. Consult all current Federal and State regulations prior to hunting on the Refuge. A Montana hunting license is required.
- Refuge-specific hunting regulations are available on the Refuge website or at the Refuge headquarters and field stations by May 1 of each year.
- All other wildlife is protected; this includes, but is not limited to badger, bear, bobcat, cottontail rabbit, jack rabbit, moose, prairie dog, snake, and wolf.
- Trapping is not allowed.
- The use of artificial lights to attract, search for, or spot wildlife is prohibited.
- Trail cameras are not allowed.
- Non-motorized game carriers are allowed except on UL Bend NWR designated wilderness areas.

Big Game Hunting

- Big game hunting seasons and harvest quotas on the Refuge may be more restrictive than State regulations.
- Portable tree stands and ground blinds are allowed and must have the user's name, address, phone number, and automated licensing system (ALS) number marked on the stand/blind and must be visible from the ground.
- Each hunter is limited to three portable tree stands and/or ground blinds. Portable tree stands or ground blinds can be installed on August 1 and must be removed by December 15 of each year. The construction or use of any permanent tree stand, ladder, or blind and the use of nails, wire, or screw-in spikes with stands, is prohibited.

Alcoholic Beverages and Marijuana

- The use or possession of alcoholic beverages while hunting is prohibited.
- Possession and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages by persons under the age of 21 is prohibited. Buying, selling, providing, distributing, or allowing underage persons to possess or consume alcohol is prohibited.
- Possession and or use of Marijuana / Cannabis / THC on National Wildlife Refuge System Lands is prohibited under Federal law.

Collection of Natural Items and Artifacts

- Collection of antlers and animal skulls is illegal. These items are an important source of renewable calcium for elk, deer, and other wildlife.
- Harvesting of any berries, mushrooms, or plants (including edible), is prohibited.
- Removing any natural items such as fossils, rocks, dried wood, and black diamond willow is prohibited.
- There are many interesting historic buildings on the Refuge. Please enjoy them as they are, and do not remove parts of the buildings or artifacts found within or around them.

Camping

- Any camping unit and/or party is limited to 14 days within any 30 day period. Any property, including camping equipment, boats, trailers, and other personal property left unattended for a period in excess of 72 hours, is subject to removal.
- Select a safe place for campfires. Build only small fires, and make certain that your fire is completely out when you leave. Campfires must be attended at all times.
- Please check at any Refuge office or the Refuge website for fire restrictions during dry periods.
- All human waste, including tissue paper, must be buried immediately.
- Dumping of RV tanks (gray or black water) is prohibited.
- Collection and use of dead and downed wood for campfires is allowed. Cutting standing timber, live or dead, is prohibited.
- Help keep the land and wildlife healthy. Pack out all trash, and restore your campsite to a natural condition when you leave.

Developed Campgrounds

- Developed camping areas near the Refuge are available at James Kipp Recreation Area (managed by the Bureau of Land Management Monument Office, Fort Benton, MT 406.622.4000 or 877.256.3252), Crooked Creek, Devils Creek, Forchette Bay, The Pines, Nelson Creek, McGuire Creek, Rock Creek, Fort Peck Recreation Areas (all managed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Fort Peck, MT 406.526.3411) and Hell Creek State Park/Recreation Area (managed by the State of Montana, Hell Creek State Park Manager 406.557.2362).

Dispersed Camping

- Camping outside of a developed campground is allowed, unless the area is designated as closed.
- Camping with a vehicle must take place within 100 yards of numbered roads that are designated as open.
- Direct access by mechanized vehicles from a numbered route is allowed to establish and utilize temporary overnight campsites within 100 yards of numbered roads designated as open. Select the most direct route to avoid damage to soils and vegetation.

Backcountry Camping

- Backpacking and horse camping are allowed, except in closed areas. For more information, contact a Refuge office.

Hiking and Horseback Riding

- Back-country travel, whether by foot or on horseback, requires special preparations and precautions. Drinking water is generally unavailable.
- Back-country travelers should be familiar with the isolated character of the Refuge and should be prepared for emergencies. Weather conditions can change rapidly. Expertise with map and compass is recommended.
- To prevent the spread of noxious weeds, only certified noxious-weed-seed-free forage is allowed. Contact a Montana State University County Extension Office for a list of approved forage vendors.
- All horses, mules, llamas, and other types of pack animals must be tied, hobbled, or confined while in camp. Pens are provided at some U.S. Army Corps of Engineers recreation sites.

Accessible Wildlife Viewing and Hunting Blinds

The Refuge has two wildlife viewing/hunting blinds available for use. Both are open to the general public with the understanding that visitors with disabilities have priority use. They are available on a first come, first serve basis. For detailed information, visit www.fws.gov/refuge/Charles_M_Russell/visit/visitor_activities/Accessible_Blinds.html

- The Hell Creek Blind is available for use year-round and located in the bottoms of Hell Creek, approximately 25 miles north of Jordan, Montana, close to Hell Creek State Park. For more information on the Hell Creek blind, call the Refuge or check the Refuge website.
- The Manning Blind is available for use year-round and located along the Missouri River (Manning Bottoms) on the western side of the Refuge and is approximately 10 miles east of Highway 191 and the Fred Robinson Bridge. For more information on the Manning Blind, call the Refuge or check the Refuge website.
