

Friends of the Florida Panther Refuge
ANNUAL MEETING

Membership not required- All are welcome!

February 6, 2014

5:30-8:00pm

The Conservancy of Southwest Florida
EATON CONSERVATION HALL
1450 Merrihue Dr. Naples, FL 34102

Enjoy Drinks and Hors d'Oeuvres with the Friend's Board, Members and Refuge Staff

Tom Trotta, President of the Friends Group will open the meeting.

Followed by Florida Panther Refuge Project Leader, Kevin Godsea's "State of the Refuge"

Featured Presenter: Refuge Wildlife Biologist, Larry Richardson

Communiqué from the Wild: Addressing Our Nature Deficit Disorder

Enjoy a fascinating talk by 35-year veteran wildlife biologist Larry Richardson, with the Florida Panther Refuge, entitled Communiqué from the Wild: Addressing our Nature Deficit Disorder. Using his award winning photographs and experiences on the refuge, Larry Richardson invites us exercise all five senses in the wild to not only discover nature's gifts, but to discover ourselves in the process.

An admission fee of $10 is requested to reserve your place.

For more information about this event and those in the future:

Email at info@floridapanther.org to RSVP and receive a link for registration or Follow us on Facebook for updates about the event

<https://www.facebook.com/FOFPR>