Join Us for Free, Fun, Programs! Parker River National Wildlife Refuge August, 2018

REGISTRATION & CAPACITY:

All refuge programs are FREE, but space may be limited. Preregistration is required for all programs, unless otherwise indicated. Please call (978) 465-5753. Please Note: If a program requires preregistration, your registration is not confirmed unless and until you receive a phone call or voice mail message from a member of the refuge staff.

Programs conducted in the auditorium are limited to 85 attendees. Seats are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Admission of additional attendees will stop when capacity has been reached.

Please note that outdoor programs may be cancelled if there is inclement weather and/or insufficient registration. Visit us on the web for more information:

http://www.fws.gov/refuge/parker_river/ or call Refuge Headquarters. The refuge visitor center is located at 6 Plum Island Turnpike, Newburyport, MA.

Beach Habitat Discovery Program

Wednesdays (August 1, 8, 15 and 22), all sessions 2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Join interns from the refuge and Massachusetts Audubon Society for a cool opportunity to discover what makes Plum Island beaches special, learn about animals that live there, and see some live critters “up close and personal!” We will feature MA Audubon at Joppa Flats' Meet Beach Creatures program, showcasing live tide pool animals such as crabs, hermit crabs and sea urchins! This program will take place on the deck of the visitor contact station, adjacent to the refuge's parking lot 1. In case of inclement weather, this program will take place inside the visitor contact station (building with restrooms). NO preregistration for this program.

Tide Pool Discoveries

Thursday, August 2nd & Thursday, August 16th, both at 9:30 a.m.

For generations children have enjoyed exploring tide pools and discovering the fascinating plants and animals that live in this realm between the tides. A refuge ranger will guide this hands-on program. Appropriate for children age 5 – 10. Each session is limited to 15 children. Each session is 90 minutes long, allowing time for travel to and from the beach. Meet the ranger at the visitor contact station at parking lot 1. Parent/guardian must remain with his/her child for the entire duration of this program. Preregistration is required for this program.

Evening Program: Yankee Homecoming 2018

A Tale of Two Beaches - Plum Island & Salisbury Beach

Friday, August 3rd, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

How did Plum Island and Salisbury Beach evolve from remote and inhospitable barrier beaches into popular beachfront destinations? Why do they have such distinct personalities? With the help of dozens of fascinating photos, maps, documents and postcards, presenter John Macone will present "A Tale of Two Beaches." Once remote places, the beaches have evolved and changed. The presentation will describe the dramatic events that have altered the coastline and effected the communities: erosion from severe storms, devastating fires, and shipwrecks.

John Macone is the former editor of the Daily News of Newburyport and co-author of the book "Plum Island and Salisbury Memories". He currently works as the Communications and Development Specialist for the Merrimack River Watershed Council. Spaces in the refuge's 85-seat auditorium will be filled on a first come, first served basis. This free evening program is being presented in partnership with Newburyport's Yankee Homecoming historical lecture series and is sponsored by the Friends of Parker River National Wildlife Refuge and Parker River NWR. Spaces in the refuge's 85-seat auditorium will be filled on a first come, first served basis. NO preregistration for this program.

The Eastern Coyote: A True Survivor (Update!)

Tuesday, August 7th, 7:00 - 8:00 p.m.

The coyote is one of the most misunderstood and persecuted animals in North America. Over the past year, refuge interns Dominic Noce and Noah Keller have continued studying the coyote population on Plum Island using camera traps - a technology that demonstrates that these are intelligent and emotionally complex animals. They will be giving a presentation on the general behavior and biology of the eastern coyote, as well as behaviors noticed in the pack living at the northern portion of the refuge. Spaces in the refuge's 85-seat auditorium will be filled on a first come, first served basis. NO preregistration for this program.

Bicycle Tour of Great Bay NWR

Friday, August 10th, Thursday, August 23rd, & Thursday, August 30th – ALL sessions 9:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Join a refuge ranger for a behind the scenes tour, by bicycle, of Great Bay National Wildlife Refuge, located in Newington, NH. Participants will have an opportunity to visit areas of the refuge that are not normally open to the public. See a diversity of habitats and learn how the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is managing this very special landscape for wildlife. Cyclists will travel over generally level terrain on a combination of paved and unpaved surfaces. The distance covered will depend on how many stops are made and how much time is spent at each stop. Tour duration will be about 2 hours. Appropriate for adults and children age 16 or older. Each participant must provide a either a hybrid or mountain bike, helmet, and water bottle. Insect repellent, sun block, binoculars and/or a camera are optional (provided these items can be safely stowed while biking). Meet the ranger in the Great Bay NWR parking lot 15 minutes before the tour start time. Limited to 10 participants. Preregistration required. For directions to the refuge, click on this link:

Evening Program: The Birds of Midway

Thursday, August 16th, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Perched on the northern end of the Hawaiian archipelago, halfway between North America and Asia, Midway Atoll is one of the most remote locations in the National Wildlife Refuge System. Nearly three million birds nest on Midway, including the largest Laysan albatross population (along with "Wisdom," the oldest known wild bird), one of the world's rarest ducks, and a flock of rogue canaries.

Come hear about some of Midway's most incredible wildlife from Kiah Walker, Parker River NWR biological technician, who spent six months as a biological volunteer on Midway. She will share never-before-seen photographs, stories about her experiences, and knowledge about the conservation efforts on this unique national wildlife refuge. Since graduating from Williams College, Kiah has been monitoring, managing and researching birds on both coasts of the U.S. and the Northwest Hawaiian Islands, with a particular interest in seabirds and shorebirds as indicator species. At Parker River, Kiah works on the piping plover recovery program and the pepperweed project.

Spaces in the refuge's 85-seat auditorium will be filled on a first come, first served basis. This free evening program is sponsored by the Friends of Parker River National Wildlife Refuge and the Parker River NWR. NO preregistration for this program.

Great Bay Shoreline Cleanup

Saturday, August 25th, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

With the help of community volunteers, we can keep our bay clean. Volunteers will be guided by USFWS personnel to closed areas of the refuge where they will remove garbage and debris from the shoreline. Let's promote clean water and a healthy environment for wildlife and people! Groups and families are welcome. We advise wearing long pants, long sleeve shirts, and sturdy boots. Bring sunscreen, bug spray, a light snack and water. Supplies provided include trash bags, gloves, and data tracking sheets. Meet at the parking lot at Great Bay National Wildlife Refuge. Sign up online

These Visitor Center Exhibits Change Monthly:

Artist of the Month Gallery: Each month a different photographer or artist displays their nature and/or wildlife-related fine art in the refuge visitor center auditorium.

Photographic Society Slide Show: Just inside the visitor center's front door is a large video monitor that displays the latest nature and wildlife-themed slide show that was produced by members of the refuge's very own photo club. A new slide show, set to music, and focusing on a unique theme, is produced each month.
