

It's the first Open House of the Season in the First and Only International Wildlife Refuge in North America!

Please join us in celebration of

Earth Day 2013

Sunday, April 21

1 - 4 pm

Humbug Marsh Unit

of the

Detroit River International Wildlife Refuge

5437 W. Jefferson Avenue, Trenton, MI

Special Presentation at 2:30 pm

in the Education Shelter

by

Dr. John Hartig

on

Burning Rivers:

Revival of Four Urban-Industrial Rivers that Caught on Fire

Learn how burning rivers were a catalyst for Earth Day and how today these rivers are experiencing remarkable ecological revival!

Dr. John Hartig is trained as a limnologist with 30 years of experience in environmental science and natural resource management. He currently serves as Refuge Manager for the Detroit River International Wildlife Refuge. John has received a number of awards for his work, including the 2012 the Michigan Association of Environmental Professionals' Outstanding Environmental Professional of the Year Award, a 2010 Green Leaders Award from the Detroit Free Press, a 2005 White House Conference on Cooperative Conservation Award for Outstanding Leadership and Collaboration in the Great Lakes, the 2003 Anderson-Everett Award from the International Association for Great Lakes Research, and the 1993 Sustainable Development Award for Civic Leadership from Global Tomorrow Coalition.