

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Balcones Canyonlands

National Wildlife Refuge

Celebrate National Wildlife Refuge Week!
Saturday October 13, 2012
8:30am to 4pm

FREE, fun programs, workshops & nature walks

Native Medicinal & Edible Plants (1:15 –3pm)

Native Grasses Walk (9:30-10:30am) ~ Birds & Butterflies (9-10:30am)

Hiking Ancient Seabeds (9am-noon) ~ Walking Stick Walk (10-11:15am & 1:15-2:30pm)

Water Wonders Walk (9-10am) ~ Nature Walk (2:30-4pm)

The Spider Walk (10-11:15am & 1:15-2:30pm) ~ Snakes Alive! (12:15-1pm)

Nature Photography Workshop for Adults (2-4pm; pre-registration required)

Fly! Fly! Fly! Monarch migration presented by Lucas Miller, author and children's performer (11:30-noon)

And more! Look for bizarre water creatures, catch and tag Monarchs
(if they are here), watch for migrating hawks and enter the butterfly tent

 Comfortable hiking shoes, water, binoculars and cameras are encouraged*

 Times & activities subject to change*

All events are at the Doeskin Ranch Unit of the Balcones Canyonlands National Wildlife Refuge on RR 1174

Directions: From FM 1431 (connecting Marble Falls and Lago Vista), go north on RR 1174 for approximately 5 miles. From Hwy. 29 (connecting Liberty Hill and Burnet), go south on RR 1174 for about 10 miles. Doeskin Ranch is on the east side of the road.

For more information, contact Rob Iski at 512/339-9432 x 70 or rob_iski@fws.gov

Large groups are encouraged to pre-register

www.friendsofbalcones.org
www.fws.gov/refuge/balcones_canyonlands/

