

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service

Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge

The Gullah Geechee:

A History Of African-Americans In Early Florida

Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge is partnering with the Spady Cultural Heritage Museum!

Engage with author, professor, film producer, and direct Gullah Geechee descendent Derek Hankerson as he tells the fascinating story of the Gullah Geechee, Florida's Underground Railroad, and how Native American tribes helped freed slaves along their journey south. Gullah Geechee descendants live along the U.S. coast from Florida to North Carolina today.

Watch a 30-minute film about the Underground Railroad, take part in a discussion, and find out more about this little-known piece of Florida's history.

Saturday, November 4, 2017

12:00 - 1:00 pm

Loxahatchee NWR Visitor Center
10216 Lee Road, Boynton Beach, FL

Please call 561-735-3684 for more information

