

Come out and join the Friends of Kootenai National Wildlife Refuge Birding Club!

This group meets every THIRD Saturday of the month at 9:00 AM in the parking lot in front of the Refuge Headquarters. It's free to join and there are no commitments or mandatory meetings. Beginners, out-of-towners, avid bird watchers, wildlife enthusiasts, curious kids...EVERYONE IS WELCOME!! Come check it out!

FREE!

Bring a pair of binoculars and a bird ID book. If you don't have these, don't fret! You can check out the birds through the Friends' scope and share with other members.

Wear walking shoes and weather appropriate clothes. We usually walk 2-4 miles over about 2-3 hours.

If birding on your own, please respect all area closures. Remember this is a wildlife REFUGE and is intended to protect wildlife and its habitat.

Stop by refuge HQ Monday-Friday 7:30-4:00 to pick up a refuge specific bird checklist.

Contact refuge HQ at (208)267-3888 with any further questions or comments.
