

Pea Island National Wildlife Refuge

Directions to interpretive program meeting locations

Pea Island Refuge Visitor Center

GPS: N 35 42.976, W 75 29.606 WGS84: 35.7162656, -75.4934309 Map: Highlighted Yellow

From Kitty Hawk: Travel south on Hwy 158 through Kill Devil Hills and Nags Head. Take a left at the Whalebone Junction traffic light onto Hwy 12 South into Cape Hatteras National Seashore. Go over the Herbert C. Bonner Bridge (Oregon Inlet) to Pea Island National Wildlife Refuge. Continue South on Hwy 12 about 4 more miles. The Pea Island Visitor Center is on the right at Mile Post 31. 45 min.

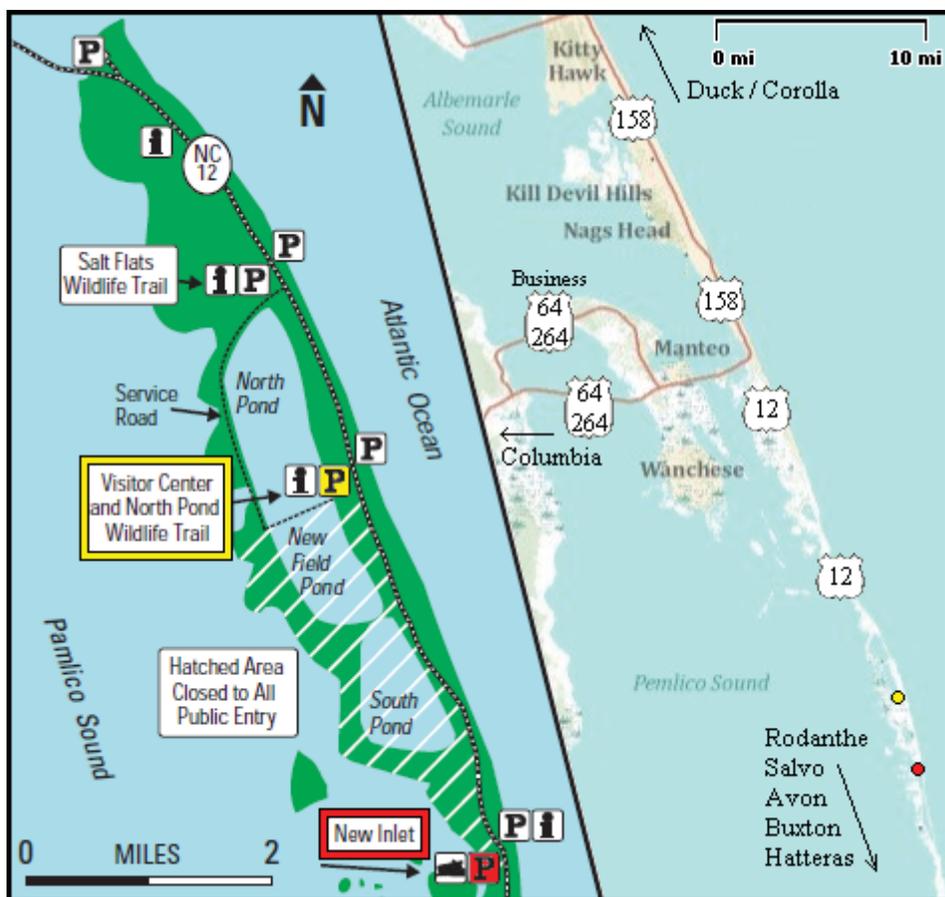

From Buxton: Travel north on Hwy 12 through Avon, Salvo, Waves and Rodanthe. Pea Island Visitor Center is approximately 8 miles north of Rodanthe on the left at Mile Post 31. 50 min.

From Columbia: Travel east, staying on Hwy 64 as you cross the Alligator River Bridge, go through Manns Harbor, cross the the Virginia Dare Memorial Bridge, pass through Roanoke Island, and then cross the Washington Baum Bridge. Just over a mile after the bridge, turn right on Hwy 12 South into Cape Hatteras National Seashore. Go over the Herbert C. Bonner Bridge (Oregon Inlet) to Pea Island National Wildlife Refuge. Continue South on Hwy 12 about 4 more miles. The Pea Island Visitor Center is on the right at Mile Post 31. 1 hr, 10 min.

New Inlet Boat Access

GPS: N 35 40.513, W 75 28.855 WGS84: 35.6752206, -75.480914 Map: Highlighted Red

From Kitty Hawk: Travel south on Hwy 158 through Kill Devil Hills and Nags Head. Take a left at the Whalebone Junction traffic light onto Hwy 12 South into Cape Hatteras National Seashore. Go over the Herbert C. Bonner Bridge (Oregon Inlet) to Pea Island National Wildlife Refuge. Continue south on Hwy 12. About 4 miles past the Oregon Inlet Bridge is the Pea Island Visitor Center on the right at Mile Post 31. Continue south for about 3 more miles then turn right into New Inlet (look for the sign). 50 min.

From Buxton: Travel north on Hwy 12 through Avon, Salvo, Waves and Rodanthe. New inlet is approximately 5 miles north of Rodanthe on the left. 45 min.

From Columbia: Travel east, staying on Hwy 64 as you cross the Alligator River Bridge, go through Manns Harbor, cross the the Virginia Dare Memorial Bridge, pass through Roanoke Island, and then cross the Washington Baum Bridge. Just over a mile after the bridge, turn right on Hwy 12 South into Cape Hatteras National Seashore. Go over the Herbert C. Bonner Bridge (Oregon Inlet) to Pea Island National Wildlife Refuge. Continue south on Hwy 12. About 4 miles past the Oregon Inlet Bridge is the Pea Island Visitor Center on the right at Mile Post 31. Continue south for about 3 more miles then turn right into New Inlet (look for the sign). 1 hr, 15 min.