

US Fish and Wildlife Service

Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge

THE POWER OF ONE VOICE

A 50-Year Perspective on the Life of Rachel Carson

August 29, 2015

Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge is proud to partner with Chincoteague Natural History Association to present a special screening of The Power of One Voice: A 50-Year Perspective on the Life of Rachel Carson. This groundbreaking documentary examines Rachel Carson's career and the profound implications of her environmental work. Enjoy a brief introductory talk presented by Executive Producer, Dr. Patricia DeMarco, followed by the 52-minute feature film. Dr. DeMarco invites you to a question & answer discussion directly following the film. Join us in the auditorium of the Herbert H. Bateman Educational and Administrative Center from 3:00pm to 5:00pm.

