Mt. Adams Bird Festival

Saturday, April 26th 2014

Mt. Adams Resource Stewards in conjunction with Conboy Lake NWR invites you to celebrate the birds of the Glenwood Valley.

The Glenwood Valley is a rich and diverse ecosystem that hosts an amazing display of woodpeckers, waterfowl, Neotropical migratory birds, raptors, songbirds, and more. It is also one of the only nesting grounds for Greater Sandhill Cranes in Washington.

Event begins at 8:30am at Conboy Lake NWR

For directions: www.fws.gov/refuge/conboy\_lake

Fee (includes all events and lunch):

- $35 per individual
- $60 per couple/family with children under 16

DISCOVERY CENTER RAPTOR PROGRAM

Raptor Interpretive Program offers an inspiring way to learn about birds of prey, including: falcons, hawks, owls, and eagles. You'll get an up-close experience with a raptor.

Adults and children of all ages will enjoy learning about the unique attributes of each fascinating raptor species. Programs address the challenges of declining habitat, the hazards of toxic chemicals, and the role humans have played in both endangering and protecting these majestic ambassadors from the wild. For more information visit: www.indiegogo.com and search for "Raptors on the Road."

Please join us for a fun and informative experience, and help foster links between our communities and the natural world.

Mt. Adams Resource Stewards

Established in 2003, Mt. Adams Resource Stewards represents a grassroots effort to address issues dealing with the sustainability of rural communities in what we know as "Mt. Adams Country." Central to our work is our mission to promote sustainable connections between the land, local economies and rural communities in the Mt. Adams Region.

CONBOY LAKE NWR

Nestled near the foot of Mount Adams in Washington's Cascades Range, Conboy Lake NWR is a scenic gem within the National Wildlife Refuge System.

Conboy Lake's lush seasonal marshes and vibrant forested uplands beckon to both visitors and wildlife. Located within an easy drive of Portland, Oregon, Conboy Lake is being "discovered" by those seeking diverse scenery, idyllic recreational opportunities and a link to the history of the Northwest.
