

San Juan Islands National Wildlife Refuge: Matia Island

Washington State Parks Seasonal Dock
Available Mid-April to Mid/Late-October

6 Fee-Use Campsites
Liquid Fuel Camp Stoves Only
No Pets

Area Enlarged

Public Use

- Dock
- Information and Pay Station
- Campsite
- Composting Toilet
- Picnic Site
- Wilderness Loop Trail (1.2 miles)

Shoreline Landing and Public Access

- Open Shoreline
- Closed Shoreline
- 2 Acre Public Use Area
- Closed to Public Access

Habitat Management

- Forest and Woodland
Protect and maintain existing areas.
- Wetland
Conduct hydrologic study and if necessary, restore hydrological processes.
- Savanna, Grassland, and Balds
Maintain patches and associated rare plants.

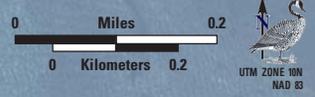

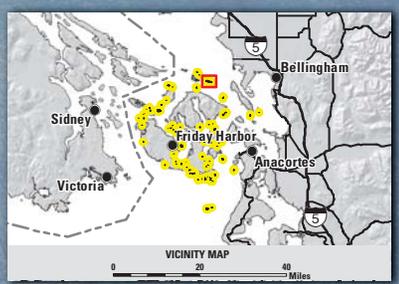

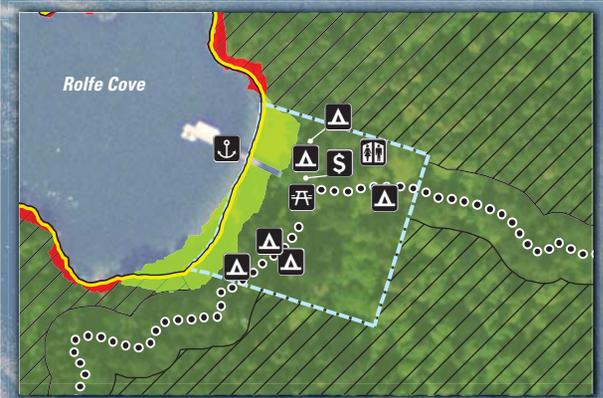

Land Status

- Refuge Lands

Public use areas open to day-use. Matia Island is co-managed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Washington State Parks.

For more information, contact:

San Juan Islands NWR
715 Hologerson Road
Sequim, Washington 98382
360/457 8451
fw1wamaritime@fws.gov
http://www.fws.gov/refuge/san_juan_islands

Data Sources: Refuge Boundaries from USFWS/R1; Imagery from 2004 WDNR True Color Aerial Photography