

Monarch Workshop

Saturday, May 21, 2016

10:00 AM until 2:00 PM

(Date & Time)

St Marks National Wildlife Refuge

Nature's Classroom

(Barred Owl Room)

(Place)

For elementary, middle and high school teachers.

This workshop will introduce curriculum lessons, schoolyard gardening, and basic monarch biology.

Participants will have the opportunity to win both mini grants to plant their own pollinator garden and transportation scholarships to bring their students to the refuge for an education program.

To register go to Eventbrite

Snacks, coffee & lunch will be provided.

For more information contact

Lori Nicholson

Environmental Education Specialist

North Florida National Wildlife Refuge Complex

St. Marks & St. Vincent National Wildlife Refuges

850-925-6121

lori_nicholson@fws.gov

www.fws.gov/refuge/st_marks

www.stmarksrefuge.org

