

INTERPRETIVE INTERN MONOMOY NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE COMPLEX

Location:

Monomoy National Wildlife Refuge Complex, Chatham, MA

Position Title:

Interpretive Intern

Employment Details:

Exciting opportunity to channel your love for the outdoors! Interpretive intern positions are available at the Monomoy National Wildlife Refuge for the summer of 2014. The positions will start between May 15th and June 1st and last for 12 weeks.

Duties:

The selected applicant's duties will include developing and guiding weekly interpretive programs for audiences of all ages; providing trailside interpretation; designing refuge fliers and brochures, staffing visitor contact station, and organizing and working with volunteers, and program development. In addition, the position will include data entry in support of refuge operations, answering phones and responding to information requests from the public. It also includes upkeep of grounds with the use of weed-wackers and leaf-blowers, as well as cleaning of the visitor facilities. The intern will be required to create and do at least 3 public programs throughout their 12 weeks, as well as design and finish a "legacy project".

Qualifications:

Requirements for the position include a valid driver's license, enthusiasm, public speaking skills, ability to work independently, and the willingness to work weekends and holidays with minimal supervision and to interact with the public in a professional manner. Past experience in natural resources and/or education is desirable.

Salary:

Stipend is typically $200/week if funds are available, and includes free dormitory style housing (requires at least 30 hours of volunteer time). Housing is located near the headquarters in Chatham, MA. College credit would need to be arranged prior through your college/university. DO NOT APPLY IF YOU CANNOT ACCEPT AN UNPAID INTERNSHIP.
