

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service

Volunteers

Helping Us Help Wildlife

THE 2015 PIPING PLOVER SEASON IS ABOUT START... and we are looking for volunteers!

Rhode Island National Wildlife Refuge staff will be holding a volunteer training Saturday April 11th at the Kettle Pond Visitor Center from 10:30am-12:00pm.

A second training will be held Saturday April 18th at the Sachuest Point Visitor Center from 10:30am-12:00pm.

If you are interested in volunteering please join us!

WHY YOU SHOULD VOLUNTEER

Volunteers play a vital role in helping the FWS fulfill its mission of conserving, protecting and enhancing America's fish, wildlife and plants and the habitats on which they depend. We hope you will consider spending time with us to help us help wildlife.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED TO Assist in the Following:

- Help protect nesting territories
- Educate the public on plover biology and local laws
- Monitor beaches
- Document activity at nesting sites

If you have any questions, please contact Plover Coordinator Ryan Kleinert either via email at Ryan.Kleinert@fws.gov or by phone at (401) 364-9124 ext. 16.