

2017 Federal Junior Duck Stamp Conservation Message - Maryland Winners

Group 1 (Grades K - 3)
Placement	First Name	Last Name	Age	School or Studio	Conservation Message
First	Simon	Wedge	8	Old Line Homeschool	Protect wetlands and help to conserve wildlife.
Second	Melanie	Etter	8	St. John Reg. Catholic School	Love nature as if its your family!
Third	McKenna	Ryan	8	St. John Reg. Catholic School	Treat nature as if you were treating your family!
HM	Benjamin	Celeste	8	St. John Reg. Catholic School	Live life with wildlife, save the wetlands.
HM	Samantha	Oliva	9	St. John Reg. Catholic School	Help waterfowl--they need our help!
HM	Kaelyn	Sun	7	May Studio	The enviornment is our home to protect.
HM	Shalin	Tyagi	7	International Luyi Art Ctr.	Our world is not completed without fragrant flowers, singing birds and quacking ducks.
HM	Lin	Zheng	8	International Luyi Art Ctr.	Save Nature, Save Wildlife, Save Ducks
Group 2 (Grades 4 - 6)
Placement	First Name	Last Name	Age	School or Studio	Conservation Message
First	James	Chen	10	Washington Luyi Art Ctr.	Conservation is key to a better environment for all.
Second	Emily	Hsu	12	May Studio	Clean water benefits all, so keep it clean!
Third	Bryan	Wang	9	Art Studio of the E & W Corridor	Nature is something that shouldn't be taken for granted, so we must conserve it.
HM	Taylor	Benning	11	May Studio	Wetland conservation is important because it provides wetland animals with a safe and healthy habitat
HM	Grace	Liu	10	International Luyi Art Ctr.	The world depends on you. Make a change.
HM	Elaine	Wang	11	Washington Luyi Art Ctr.	Mother Nature's greatest gift to mankind, wildlife.
HM	Grace	Zhao	11	May Studio	Conservation can not only make the world a better place for ducks, it makes the world a better place for you too.
HM	Angelina	Zhou	11	May Studio	Masterpieces of nature are fragile, challenging to create but so easily destroyed.

2017 Federal Junior Duck Stamp Conservation Message - Maryland Winners

Group 3 (Grades 7 - 9)
Placement	First Name	Last Name	Age	School or Studio	Conservation Message
First	Joyce	Wang	13	Bu Studio Inc.	Nature gave us the gift of the wetlands and it is now our duty to conserve it.
Second	Eileen	Wang	14	May Studio	What we take from nature, we must also give back.
Third	Leon	Sun	15	International Luyi Art Ctr.	Conservation is essential to preserving the diversity that exists in wetlands, especially during a time where human interests and demands often conflict with nature.
HM	Cassi	Chen	13	Washington Luyi Art Ctr.	Like humans, wildlife need a safe and healthy environment to thrive in.
HM	Michelle	Liu	14	May Studio	For the beauty of nature to be enjoyed by everyone, everyone must protect it.
HM	Katherine	Shen	13	Washington Luyi Art Ctr.	Treasure, protect and explore the ecosystems in our own backyard.
HM	Emily	Sun	12	May Studio	We must protect the beauty of nature for the future generation
HM	Sandra	Yen	15	May Studio	Nature is part of us. Take care of it.

Group 4 (Grades 10 - 12)
Placement	First Name	Last Name	Age	School or Studio	Conservation Message
First	Cara	Lee	17	May Studio	To protect nature is to protect yourself.
Second	Jiana	Soriano	17	May Studio	Our lives are connected. Conserving the environment will not only sustain wildlife but the life of humans as well.
Third	Yuning	Jiang	16	Erae Art Studio	When we are conserving nature, we are conserving history for the next generation.
HM	Mabel	Chang	16	May Studio	Save the ducks!
HM	Jacqueline	Hritzso	16	Independent Entry	The Future of the Wetlands is the Future of America
HM	Jane	Huang	15	May Studio	Look beyond yourself and protect the species and habitats that need saving.
HM	Haoran	Li	16	Bu Studio Inc.	Wetlands are more than just an unique ecosystem--wetlands are our home.
HM	Jerry	Yuan	15	May Studio	Nature is our gift. We should protect it.