

Wildlife Conservation Day

Patuxent Research Refuge

North Tract

Saturday, August 16th

10am-2pm – FREE

- SEE retriever dogs and learn about hunting thru the Meade Natural Heritage Association and the National Wild Turkey Federation.
- EXPLORE habitats with a trail guide.
- LEARN about wildlife viewing, birding and wildlife photography.
- DISCOVER conservation and recreational opportunities.
- PRACTICE fly tying and fishing at one of our ponds.
- PARTICIPATE in archery and firearms demonstrations.
- ENGAGE in crafts for younger children.

Patuxent Research Refuge North Tract is located at 230 Bald Eagle Drive 1.4 miles east of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, off Route 198 east of Laurel. Call 301-497-5770 for more information or visit <http://patuxent.fws.gov>. Accommodations for individuals with special needs are available with a two week advance notice.