2015 Fall Festival
at Masonville Cove!

Get nerdy with nature anytime between 10 am and 3 pm!

WHEN

Saturday, October 3, 2015

WHERE

Masonville Cove Environmental Education Center
1000 Frankfurst Avenue
Baltimore, Maryland 21226

HOW

To register for this event, please call 410-576-1014 or visit aqua.org/conservationevents.

Join the National Aquarium Conservation Team and our project partners as we help restore this urban wildlife refuge with a debris cleanup and bay grass planting. Everyone will be invited to participate in citizen science as we discover the wildlife inhabiting the waters of Masonville Cove. We've also packed the day with a variety of fun outdoor activities, including fishing, archery, fall-themed arts and crafts, and more! Hope to see you there!

Volunteers must be at least 10 years old. All volunteers under 18 years old will need to be supervised by an adult.

Questions? Please contact the National Aquarium Conservation Team at conserve@aqua.org or 410-576-1014.
