

June 2015

Activities and Events

at the Kenai National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center, Soldotna

Tuesdays

6/23 & 6/30
at 1pm

A Tale of Two Cabins - Guided History Walk

Join Refuge staff on an easy, short walk to visit two restored historic cabins: Andrew Berg's Homestead Cabin and Mamie and Luke Elwell's Guest Cabin for a hands-on look into life on the Refuge in the 1920s and 1940s.

Thursday

6/25 at 1pm

Family Explorer

Get up close to nature with our Rangers during this interactive program. Great for all ages and abilities, we'll go on a bug walk on the Keen-Eye Trail with Refuge entomologist Matt Bowser.

Saturdays

at 1pm

Saturday Showcase

Delve deeper into the Refuge with staff and special guests every weekend.

June 6: Meet Officer Rob and his partner, Rex the K-9 Officer

June 13: Sockeye Fishing for Beginners

June 20: Shutterbugs Nature Photography

June 27: Wildflowers of the Kenai

Sundays

at 1pm

Fitness Hike on the Centennial Trail (starting June 21)

Come along for a moderate-paced guided hike with a Ranger along the Refuge's Centennial Trail. Length varies, up to 3 miles.

Wear comfortable shoes, and leave pets at home, please.

Call 907-260-2820 for more information or to arrange for special needs accommodations.

Kenai
National Wildlife Refuge
Icefield to Ocean