October 2016

Celebrating the Refuge's 75th Anniversary

Photography Exhibition

featuring the works of Tom Collopy and Mary Frische

"A Standard of Change"

Explore the inspiration and influence of conservation leader Aldo Leopold in a one-act play by guest performer Jim Pfitzer

Opening Reception with refreshments

Saturday, October 8, 2016
6:00 - 8:00 pm
Free Admission

Hosted at the Kenai Chamber & Visitor Center
11471 Kenai Spur Hwy, Kenai, AK 99611
Call 907-260-2820 for more information

Activities and Events

at the Kenai National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center, Soldotna

Visitor Center Hours: 10am-5pm, Tuesday-Saturday, Closed Sundays and Mondays

PEEPS: Preschool Program

Thursday, October 20 - Spiders
Two sessions: 9am and 10:30am

Hands-on fun for preschoolers ages 2-5 and their siblings.
Activities, storytime, snack and a take home craft.

Spooky Seasons

Saturday, October 29
11am to 2pm

Drop in to explore delightfully creepy creatures of the Refuge through actvities with our Rangers.
- Costumes Welcome -

Saturday Wildlife Movies

1pm An Original DUCKumentary, 3pm Arctic Dance- The Mardy Murie Story

Call 907-260-2820 for more information or to arrange for special needs accommodations.

Kenai National Wildlife Refuge
Icefield to Ocean