

Pincher Creek Cabin

Updated: December 20, 2013

Overview:

Pincher Creek cabin is a rustic log cabin built in the summer of 2008. The 14' x 16'7" foot log cabin sleeps four people comfortably. It is equipped with two bunk beds, table with benches, broom, shovel, water bucket, fire extinguisher, and a wood stove for heat. An outdoor toilet is provided.

Visitors will need to bring their own water for drinking, cooking and cleaning purposes. Water taken from the stream must be treated or boiled prior to consumption. Visitors will need to bring their own bedding and sleeping pads, cooking gear and utensils among other necessities. All garbage and food must be packed out. Firewood is limited in the area and it is recommended to bring in your own dry firewood with you.

Recreation Opportunities:

This cabin offers seclusion, hiking, photography and waterfowl hunting. The area is home to a variety of wildlife, including moose, black and brown bears and wolves. In the winter there is cross-county skiing and snowshoeing. Hunting is allowed. Review Alaska Department of Fish and Game hunting and fishing regulations for more details.

Special Considerations

The seclusion of this cabin necessitates being prepared for emergency situations. Inclement weather may cause an unexpected extension of the trip. Bringing a personal cooking stove is recommended. Carry in potable water or boil surface water 5 minutes before drinking. Remember to pack out your trash.
