Unit Access

Working to conserve, protect and restore Sacramento River habitats for wildlife and people. The refuge vision is to create a linked network of up to 18,000 acres of riparian and floodplain habitats, including forests, grasslands, freshwater marsh and other aquatic habitats. By using innovative restoration techniques and working with public and private partners, the refuge provides lands that help fulfill the needs of native fish, wildlife and plants. The refuge is committed to provide quality wildlife-dependent recreational opportunities, including wildlife observation, interpretation, environmental education, photography, hunting and fishing.
