I. Definition of “Disabled Hunter”

A "Disabled Hunter" is defined as a person who has been issued one of the following from the State of Nevada:

The person to whom the plates or placards are issued must be present.

***Comparable documentation may be used for out of state disabled hunters.

II. Use of disabled accessible waterfowl hunting blind

Use of the disabled accessible waterfowl hunting blind will be “First Come, First Served”.

OR

If you wish to make a reservation, you may do so by calling the Stillwater National Wildlife Refuge Complex office at 775-423-5128 ext. 235, or email Carl Lunderstadt at carl\_lunderstadt@fws.gov. Reservations will also be made on a “First Come, First Served” basis, but in the event there are multiple requests received at the same time for the same day, a random drawing will be held to determine who gets the reservation.

To receive a reservation, you will need to provide your name, address, phone number, email, and a copy of either the DMV issued Authorization Letter or one of the disabled hunting licenses.

You may only hold one reservation at any one time. After using your reservation, you may make another reservation.

Once processed (normally same day), you will receive a confirmation letter/email for your reservation, and the refuge will post the blind with the date and time of your reservation. You must have the confirmation letter with you as proof of your reservation.
