

Early Summer Butterfly Tour

Sherburne National Wildlife Refuge

Saturday
June 21, 2014

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Learn to identify some of the common butterflies that make Sherburne National Wildlife Refuge their home. Refuge volunteer educator and butterfly enthusiast, Doug Stucki, will be your guide. Bring insect repellent, sunscreen, a butterfly field guide, and close focusing binoculars, if you have them.

All refuge tours and events are free and open to everyone, supported financially by Friends of Sherburne.

Meet at the Blue Hill Trail, located on County Road 9, 1 mile west of Refuge Headquarters. Maps and directions to the refuge from local communities can be found on our website.

Please pre-register for this tour by calling 763/ 389-3323 x 10 or TTY 1-800-877-8339 or by email: sherburne@fws.gov
