

Certified Interpretive Guide Workshop

June 16-19, 2014

9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge, Bloomington, MN

Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge, in partnership with the National Association for Interpretation (NAI), is offering a professional certification course for individuals who will be delivering interpretive programs or talking with the public at interpretive sites.

Workshop Highlights

- Foundations of interpretation
- Programming emotional and intellectual ideas into presentations to connect audiences to the resource
- Tailor programs for diverse audiences and various learning styles
- Interactive group activities, demonstrations, and individual sessions with instructors

Requirements

Anyone age 16 or over with a desire to increase their knowledge and skills related to interpretation may participate. Participants are required to take an open book exam, write a program outline, and conduct a 10-minute interpretive presentation.

Cost is $140 for full registration. Current student registration is $125.

Registration

Fill out the registration form. Registration and payment must be received by June 13, 2014.

Questions? Contact Mara Koenig at mara_koenig@fws.gov, 952/858-0710.

