Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge Annual Pass Photo Contest

Chincoteague, VA - Calling all amateur photographers! Here's a great opportunity to showcase your talent. Your picture may be the next winner of the Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge Annual Pass Photo Contest. We want your amazing photos of the refuge; images that highlight the best of the scenic landscapes, precious wildlife and small wonders which we all cherish. Starting August 15, 2018 you can submit a photo that you have taken on the refuge over the past two years. Entries will be accepted until the close of business on October 1, 2018. Please do not submit images of the lighthouse, ponies, bald eagles, monarch butterflies, or snapping turtles because they were previously featured as winning images.

This year, voting will be done in two stages. Refuge staff will select the top five photos that capture the essence of our island. Local community leaders will pick a winner from these finalists. The winner will be announced on October 22, 2018. The selected image will be featured on the front of the 2019 Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge Annual Pass!

Are you ready to get started? Grab your cameras, visit the refuge and start capturing memories! You can also head to our website for contest rules and the entry form: www.fws.gov/refuge/Chincoteague. We are excited to share your experience!

Entries will be accepted: August 15, 2018 – October 1, 2018
