

Ducky At Dawn

Set your alarm clock and join Refuge volunteer Lee Sliman (and perhaps ‘Puddles’ the Blue Goose) every Sunday morning at dawn during the month of November to welcome the return of waterfowl to our region. Bring your hot beverage and bundle up, for the most comfortable viewing experience.

In 2014 sunrise viewers spotted a rare Tundra Bean goose among our regular visitors. Scan the flocks to see if the Refuge has other unusual visitors this season!

Date	Sunrise
November 1	7:30 AM
November 8	7:45 AM
November 15	7:45 AM
November 22	8:00 AM
November 29	8:15 AM

* Contact Refuge volunteer Lee Sliman @ 503-812-6392 for more information. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is committed to providing access to this event for everyone. Requests for sign language interpreting services or other accommodations must be directed to Dawn Harris at 541-867-4550 or TTY 503-231-6263 24 hrs prior to event .