

LEARNING AT LOXAHATCHEE

WHERE: Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge (Refuge) 10216 Lee Road, Boynton Beach, FL 33473-4797. The lectures will be free with $5.00 per vehicle admission to the Refuge. Pass holders are admitted free.

WHEN: November through April, alternate Thursdays at 1:30 PM in the Visitor Center Theater.

WHO: Speakers are leading experts in their fields.

TOPICS 2015-2016

NOVEMBER 19th: Ecology of South Florida and the Northern Everglades

DECEMBER 3rd: The Business of Smuggling Wildlife into South Florida
Federal Agents Display Seized Contraband

DECEMBER 17th: Alligators of the Refuge
Live alligators exhibited

JANUARY 7th: Native and Invasive Fish of the Refuge
Live fish will be exhibited

JANUARY 21st: Law Enforcement on the Refuge
Weapons and Detection Equipment Used by Officers will be on Display

FEBRUARY 4th: Ethno-botany: Edible and Curative Refuge Plants

FEBRUARY 25th: The scoop of Poop (Thanks to Wayne Lynch):
The Science of What Wildlife Leave Behind

MARCH 10th: Climate Chaos? We Have All the Tools to Slow It

MARCH 24th: Water and the Everglades, Why Inches Matter

APRIL 7th: Burmese Pythons: A major threat to the Northern Everglades
Live snakes will be exhibited