Detroit River IWR Hosts Photography Workshop

Trenton, Michigan- Spring is almost here so get ready to capture it with your camera. On Saturday, March 20th from 7 to 9 am, Karen Skrocki will lead a photography workshop for beginners at the Humbug Marsh Unit of the Refuge. After an instructional period, Karen will lead participants on a walk where they can put their new skills to the test! The program is free and registration is not required. For your own reference, you may wish to bring your camera manual. Conditions may be muddy, so bring appropriate footwear.

The Humbug Marsh Unit is located at 5645 West Jefferson in Trenton, MI. Park at the gate and follow the signs to the education shelter. For more information please contact Kristi Thiel (734-692-7649) of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.
