

Kenai National Wildlife Refuge

October 2012 Events

6th Digital Photo Safari- Fall Edition

1 pm-2 pm

Refuge Headquarters, Soldotna

Meet at the Refuge Visitor Center in Soldotna to explore the Keen-Eye Trail and the last of the Fall colors through the lens of a digital camera. Cameras are provided, and participants go home with prints of their photos. Registration Required with Leah 260-2811

13th The Big Sit 2012

All Day

Lower Skilak Boatlaunch

Join Refuge biologists and rangers for a day of birding and family activities about resident birds. Part of a national event, the Big Sit challenges birders to count as many species as possible in a 24-hour period from a 17-foot circle.

If all day sounds too long: Come for just the midday activities from 1:30-3:00pm with our rangers and play games, use our spotting scopes and warm up with sweet hot cocoa and snacks.

18th PEEPs Preschool Program

9 am & 10:30 am

Refuge Headquarters, Soldotna

Bring your preschoolers and come find out more about curious crows and raskally ravens at this month's PEEPs. Activities, craft, snack and stories round out this fun-filled hour for children up to the age of 5.

27th Spooky Seasons Family Event

3 pm-7:30 pm

Refuge Headquarters, Soldotna

Bugs, bats and hooting owls...these creatures are so cool! Explore animals that are active at night and take a walk on our activity trail as our Rangers show you that night time can be not-so-scary!
