

Join the Friends of Crane Meadows National Wildlife Refuge
for the annual

Spring Bird Walk

Enjoy a morning of birding at Crane
Meadows National Wildlife Refuge on Saturday, May 11th!

Join Refuge staff, Friends members, and experienced birder Milt Blomberg as we walk the Platte River Trail in search of spring migrants.
No experience is necessary.

Bring your camera if you wish and binoculars if you have them. The Refuge has binoculars available for use as well.

Meet at the Refuge Headquarters Shop at 8:00AM on Saturday, May 11th. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

For more information, call Refuge Headquarters at 320-632-1575.
