

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service

Waccamaw National Wildlife Refuge with the SEWEE Association, Inc.

present...

Wild About Waccamaw 2010

Saturday August 21st, 2010

9am to 2pm

All ages welcome

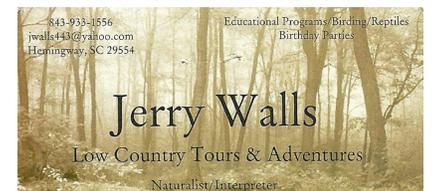

Join us Saturday August 21st, 2010 for our annual end-of-summer wildlife celebration. All activities will take place at our beautiful Visitor Center overlooking the Pee Dee River & Yauhannah Lake. Bring the family, relax by the river, & enjoy the wonders of nature.

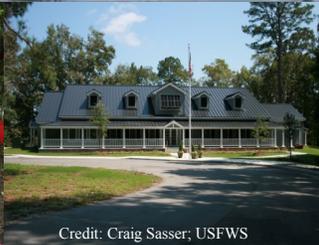

Credit: Black River Outdoors Center & Excursions

Credit: Craig Sasser; USFWS

Credit: Jason Hunnicutt; USFWS

Credit: Craig Sasser; USFWS

Credit: Lowcountry Tours & Adventures

List of Raffle Donors:

- The Audubon Shop & Gallery
- Pawleys Island Mercantile
- Low Country Tours & Adventures
- Black River Outdoors Center
- The Lens Work Gallery and more...

- Free Food & Drinks!
- Guided kayaking tours on the Pee Dee River with Black River Outdoors Center*
- "Snakes Alive" live reptile show presented by Low Country Tours & Adventures
- Raffle Prizes
- Self-guided trail walks
- Exhibit hall featuring local flora & fauna
- Archaeological excavation demonstration with Dr. Cheryl Ward of Coastal Carolina University

*Reservations recommended, fee required, Call Visitor Center to reserve

Waccamaw National Wildlife Refuge

Visitor Center
21424 N. Fraser Street
Georgetown, S.C. 29440
Ph. (843) 527-8069
www.fws.gov/waccamaw
WaccamawNWR@fws.gov