

Puget Sound Prairies: Teaching students about the importance of prairie habitats in the South Sound.

A FREE* workshop for teachers in Pierce, Thurston and Lewis Counties who want to educate their students about prairies through classroom and field-based curriculum.

Participants will learn about the new USFWS Prairie Education Box, the wealth of curriculum, materials and artifacts it contains and how they can access it for use in their classrooms.

Who: 3rd – 12th Grade South Puget Sound Area Teachers

When: Monday, November 14, 2011 – 9:30 am to 4:00 pm

Where: Wolf Haven International's Business Office. For directions, go to: <http://www.wolfhaven.org/directions.php>.

Substitute reimbursement and clock hours provided. (Space is limited.)

For more information, contact:

Erica Baker at (360) 791-5399, eeteacher1@gmail.com

To register, contact:

Gigi Williams at (360) 705-9294,

Gwilliams@pacificeducationinstitute.org

*Funding for this workshop provided by a grant through Project Bluebird and the US Fish and Wildlife Service.