

Distribution of Federally Listed Threatened and Endangered Species in West Virginia<sup>1, 2</sup>

- Habitat buffers around known occurrences of other federally listed species<sup>2</sup>
- Waterways supporting federally listed aquatic species

1. All forested areas in West Virginia are considered potential summer habitat for the endangered Indiana bat. Please contact this office regarding any projects, anywhere in the state, that will require clearing of 17 acres or more of forest.

2. Includes nest sites of bald eagles, which are not listed under the Endangered Species Act. However they continue to receive Federal protection under the Bald and Golden Eagle Protection Act and the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.
