The 15th Annual Great Backyard Bird Count

Northern Shoveler/© Dr. Madeline Kalbach

Learn about local birds and help count. No experience necessary. Members of the Shoalwater Birders, Friends of Willapa National Wildlife Refuge and Refuge Staff will serve as guides for this fun and rewarding bird count.

Meet at the Tarlatt Unit of Willapa National Wildlife Refuge - end of 95th Road off Sandridge Road in Long Beach. For more information contact nancy_holman@fws.gov or 360-484-3482 x23

The Great Backyard Bird Count is a nation-wide opportunity to participate in citizen science created by the Cornell Lab of Ornithology and Audubon. www.birdcount.org
